

Public Performance License

EmotiTone Background Radio — radioapp.billymello.com

This document confirms the licensing status of the musical recordings made available for streaming at radioapp.billymello.com (the “Recordings”), for use by any business or individual playing them as background music in a publicly accessible space.

1. Rights Holder

All Recordings made available through radioapp.billymello.com are composed, produced, and wholly owned by Fernando Augusto Carreiro de Mello (professionally known as Billy Mello). No other composer, publisher, label, or collecting society holds any share of rights in these Recordings.

2. License Grant

Billy Mello grants any person or business a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to publicly play the Recordings, streamed in real time and unmodified from radioapp.billymello.com, as background or ambient music in a physical space open to the public or staff (for example: shops, cafes, restaurants, offices, waiting rooms, salons, or similar premises).

3. No Performance-Rights-Society Fees Required

Because Billy Mello is the sole rights holder of both composition and recording, and no publisher or performance rights organization (such as GEMA, GVL, ASCAP, BMI, SACEM, or PRS) holds any claim to these specific Recordings, no additional public-performance royalty payment to such an organization is owed for playing them under the terms of this license. Businesses may retain this document as evidence of licensing status if asked by a collecting society or auditor.

4. What This License Does Not Cover

- Downloading, copying, redistributing, or reselling the audio files themselves;
- Using the Recordings in another commercial production (advertising, film, television, another streaming product, or a compiled release) without a separate written agreement;
- Modifying, remixing, or claiming authorship of the Recordings;
- Sublicensing this permission to a third party.

5. Attribution

Attribution to Billy Mello is appreciated but not required.

6. No Warranty

The Recordings are provided “as is,” and this license may be updated or withdrawn for future use at Billy Mello’s discretion; playback already in progress under this license at the time of any change remains covered by the terms in effect when playback began.
